Available airlines:

- Malaysia Airlines
- British Airways
- Qatar Airways
- Emirates

Flight time: 17 to 19 hours

Time difference: GMT +8 hours

Key facts

- What to bring: Comfortable and light clothing, suncream and sunglasses.
- Language: Indonesian and Balinese.
- Entry requirements: For the most up-to-date passport and visa information, visit www.gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice.
- Food and drink: Try out the country's national dish - Nasi goreng. Or give satay or sate as it's called in Indonesia a try, which is meat on a skewer served with a sauce. There are vegetarian dishes too, such as Nasi timbel – rice wrapped in banana leaf.
- Currency: IDR – Indonesian rupiah. You might want to bring a small amount of local currency for drinks, meals, tips and souvenirs.
- Shopping: There'll be the opportunity to pick up bits and bobs from souvenir shops along the route.
- From the 14th February 2024, the Government of Bali Province will implement an International Tourist Levy of 150.000 IDR Indonesian Rupiah per person (incl. children) per stay (around £8 GBP). Payment can be done online by accessing Register Love Bali (<https://lovebali.baliprov.go.id/register>) before arrival. Once the payment is made, Love Bali will send paid notification as proof that guests has paid online. If you do not pay online before arrival, you can go to the bank counter at Ngurah Rai airport and pay via debit or credit card.
- We recommend you pay the tourist tax before arriving to Bali to fasten the process upon arrival and avoid delays.
